Dear Mr. Langer: Our attention in Federated Club has been called to the fact that in the House Resolution 33 about the Indians certain things were struck out in the Senate bill. We believe they should be put back - Electric power, shore line rights, tax exemption of lands bought back within present boundaries of the Reservation - Also that the Indians be assured of the use of the bottom land until they are moved to a new location.

Thank you -

Yours truly,
Mrs. Donald K. Dike
