DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

AUG - 4 1955

Hon. William Langer
United States Senate
Washington 25, D. C.

My dear Senator Langer:

During Commissioner Emmons' absence, this will acknowledge the receipt of your letter dated July 22 transmitting a letter you received from Mr. Martin Cross, Chairman, Tribal Council, Three Affiliated Tribes of the Fort Berthold Reservation, together with a copy of a resolution recommending Mr. Frank Gordon for the position of Superintendent at that agency.

Tribal representatives from the Fort Berthold Agency were in the Office recently and at that time talked with me concerning Mr. Gordon. They were assured that in line with the Bureau's promotion-from-within policy, Mr. Gordon would be given every consideration, along with other qualified individuals, in making a selection for the Superintendent position.

In accordance with your request, the enclosures submitted with your letter are returned herewith. We appreciate your interest in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

(Sgd) W. BARTON GREENWOOD
ACTING
