Dear Martin:

I am in receipt of your letter and I was very glad to hear from you.

Senator Neuberger has not held a hearing yet and I am beginning to get discouraged. I have asked him about it so often that it is embarrassing to mention it to him again. A group from the Standing Rock Reservation is in town now. Some are for and some are against per capita payments, but as far as I am concerned, I agree with you. It is one of the most important bills to every come up and I would so like to get it through.

When I get out to the State later on I hope to see you and we can talk over this matter together.

I am, as always

Your Friend,
