Dear Senator Young:

SEE

X - Mrs. A. N. Winge, Van Hook, North Dakota, has written me that under the reclamation program for Garrison Dam she and eighty-eight others must appear in court in Bismarck this spring in connection with condemnation proceedings. She has asked me to contact all of our delegation concerning her problem.

She feels that the Army Engineers have not treated her fairly and suggests that we call a halt to the finishing of the dam until a settlement is made. I have contacted the Chief of Engineers, who has agreed to have one of his representatives contact Mrs. Winge again to see what can be done to help her.

With every good wish and best regards, I am

Sincerely,

Wlkj
