Aberdeen Report
Jan

JUL 11 1952

My dear Senator Langer:

I have your letter of June 27 referring to this office a communication from Bertha Driver and others of the Fort Berthold Reservation relating to relocation problems due to the Garrison Dam project.

I am requesting Mr. John M. Cooper, Area Director of the Aberdeen Area Office to look into this matter and take any action which might be justified by the circumstances and to furnish a report to this office.

As soon as his report is received here, you will be further advised.

Sincerely yours,

H. G. Lee
