Chairman, Tribal Council

THREE AFFILIATED TRIBES

Fort Berthold Reservation

ELBOWOODS, NORTH DAKOTA

April 25, 1951

Senator William A. Langer
U. S. Senate Building
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator:

I have the honor to transmit to you a copy of Resolution adopted by the Tribal Business Council of the Fort Berthold Reservation, of April 13, 1951. You will find the Resolution self-explanatory.

Adoption of this Resolution and the language contain therein directing the administration of the funds awarded us by the Act of 437, has caused no end of worrying among some of the people.

Some people have hinted that if we divided up our funds, the Government might "turn the Indians loose" and withdraw the various kinds of assistance and services rendered through the facilities of the Indian Bureau.

We do not know whether this is true and we think we ought to know before our people take any steps in matters pertaining to it.

I would appreciate your writing and giving your views.

Sincerely I am,

Martin Cross
