Rolla, North Dakota

Dear John:

Inasmuch as Senator Langer is presently in North Dakota, we are taking the liberty of acknowledging your letter of the 19th which has arrived, relative to the recent industrial development meetings near the Indian reservations in North Dakota.

We are contacting Commissioner Emmons asking that he keep us informed on the developments of these meetings as you suggest. It will be most interesting to see what develops and we will certainly keep in touch with you.

With kind regards and best wishes to you, I am

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Irene Martin Edwards
