Mrs. Byron H. Wilde
Emmet, North Dakota

Dear Mrs. Wilde:

Your very interesting and important letter of recent date has been received and for your information I am enclosing a copy of the speech I made on the Senate Floor which shows that I intend to leave nothing undone to help the Indians. This, of course, must include the white people who have land in the vicinity.

The dam, as you know, will in all probability be built, but it cannot be built until this land has been paid for.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,
