Hon. and Mrs. Stephen Price,
Newtown,
North Dakota.

Dear Friends:

This will acknowledge and thank you for your letter which has arrived.

With regard to the mineral rights on the area flooded for Garrison Dam, there is a bill before the Public Works Committee for their consideration at the present time. However, there is no way of knowing what they will do in Committee.

Members of your Tribal Council visited me several times while they were down here and Senator Young and I did what we could to arrange hearings for them before both the House and Senate Interior and Insular Affairs Committees.

Do not hesitate to write at any time when matters come up which you think I ought to know about or where I can be of assistance to you.

With kind regards and hoping you are well, I am

Sincerely,

WL asd.
