Hon. Earl Bateman,
137 North Franklin Street,
North Sacramento, California.

Dear Mr. Bateman:

As Senator Langer is temporarily in North Dakota, we are taking the liberty of writing to you with further reference to your inquiry to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs relative to the purchase of liquor by the Fort Berthold Indians.

You have undoubtedly received the Commissioner's reply at this time. We know that Senator Langer would be glad to have any comments you may have on this or to know if there is anything further he can do for you down here.

With kind regards, I am

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Irene Martin Edwards,
Secretary to Senator Langer.
