Dear Mr. Shane:

In the absence of Senator Langer who is presently in North Dakota, I am taking the liberty of forwarding to you the attached report which we received from the Department of Interior, concerning the centralizing of purchasing at Area Office level.

You may be assured that it was a pleasure for the Senator to check into this matter for you, and I hope that you will feel free to write him again whenever you have a suggestion to offer or whenever he might be of assistance.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Dorothy Ford Gwinn
Secretarial Assistant to Senator Langer
