Dedication

Robert K. Rushing joined the staff of the University of North Dakota School of Law as Dean in 1969, and during his ten year stay in that position initiated vast improvements in the quality of education provided by the school. In 1979, he resigned from the position of Dean to devote himself to full-time teaching duties at the Law School.

For all of us who have been fortunate enough to call him Dean, Professor, and friend, Dean Rushing's passing has brought great sorrow. It is comforting, however, to realize that his numerous contributions to the legal community in North Dakota will be long remembered. A generation of lawyers in the state have benefited from their opportunity to be associated with this fine man. It is with deepest respect that we dedicate this issue to the memory of Dean Robert K. Rushing.
