NOTICE

The term of Norman G. Tenneson of Fargo on the North Dakota State Bar Board will expire December 31, 1968. Article X of the bylaws of the State Bar Association of North Dakota provides procedure for nominations to the State Bar Board. The bylaws provide that the Executive Committee shall select the names of three members of the Association in good standing for submission to the Supreme Court for each vacancy.

At the September 7, 1968 meeting held in Bismarck, the Executive Committee selected Phil B. Vogel, Lavern C. Neff, and Russell G. Nerison as nominees for the position now held by Norman Tenneson.

Members of the Association may make additional nominations by a petition signed by ten (10) members of the Association which is filed with the secretary. If additional nominations are made by petition, the secretary will poll the membership of the Association and the names of those receiving the highest number of votes, "up to the number of nominees to be chosen shall be presented to the Supreme Court as nominees of this Association for members of the State Bar Board."

Pursuant to Article X of the bylaws requiring reasonable notice in the North Dakota Law Review, you are hereby notified that nominations may be made by petition for the vacancy on the State Bar Board. You are further notified that such nominations must be filed with the Secretary of this Association, Mr. J. Philip Johnson, 321 Gate City Building, Fargo, North Dakota not later than December 20, 1968. In order to be filed, nominations must be received at the Association office not later than the date shown above.
