PRESIDENT'S PAGE

Dear Fellow Lawyers:

We have met with a disappointment in the preparation of the program for the State Bar meeting in that I have just been recently notified that Mr. Willis Smith, President of the American Bar Association, will not be able to visit our convention. He had fully intended to be present but unavoidable circumstances have made it impossible for him to arrange his itinerary to include our meeting. There is a good possibility that we will be able to obtain a very satisfactory substitute by having Mr. Tappen Gregory, Chairman of the House of Delegates of the American Bar Association, as a representative of that Association. However, at this writing arrangements have not been completed for Mr. Gregory's appearance but I sincerely hope that this can be accomplished.

I presume that all of you have received the questionnaire that was prepared by Judge Jacobsen and have already returned the same to him. I notice by the Press that he expects to leave for Germany and I hope that all of the questionnaires will be returned promptly so that he can compile the information contained therein before he leaves.

Sincerely yours,
ROY A. PLOYHAR,
President.
