A REPORT OF AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION MEETING

Your President was privileged to attend the American Bar Association meeting at Detroit a year ago this fall, and so it was thought proper to have our Vice President, Wm. G. Owens, who would undoubtedly have been our President had we had a meeting this fall, attend the American Bar Association meeting in Chicago in August of this year. I have asked him to submit to our Association a report on this meeting, and he has complied with that request, and submitted a very able report, which we are having published in this issue of Bar Briefs. I would recommend to all the lawyers that they read the entire report.

O. B. HERIGSTAD,
President.
