ATTENDANCE URGED FOR ANNUAL MEETING

The Executive Committee and officers of the North Dakota State Bar Association urge every lawyer who can possibly spare the time to attend the annual meeting of the State Bar Association at Bismarck, N. D., on September 18th and 19th.

Good things are in store for those in attendance at the meeting. The Legal Clinic or Institute inaugurated at our last meeting will be at the forefront. Six subjects will be under discussion for which see program on inside pages.

The Red Book containing briefs on the subject will again be distributed free of charge to members present. The discussion leaders invite advance questions so send them in. These clinics will give you the last word on each subject. Let every member come and bring himself up to date.

"No system of law can remain static. It must grow and mould and adjust itself to the needs of the time, in order to meet the responsibilities with which it is charged. It is a proper function of lawyers to be in the forefront of such advances, and it is the duty of every member of the legal profession to equip himself properly to become a part of these great public movements."
