The representative of such District Bar Association shall serve upon such Executive Committee until the next annual meeting of this Association, notwithstanding the election of a new President of such District Bar Association. Such referendum shall be by secret ballot and thirty days from date of mailing, the ballots shall be allowed for completion of the votes. At the expiration of that time the ballots shall be canvassed by the President and Secretary, and by a Judge of the Supreme Court or District Court to be selected by the President, and the result shall be published at the capital of this state. The committee upon jurisprudence and law reform shall receive and consider from any member of the Bar of the state at any time proposed amendments to the code, and shall at each meeting of the Association report what changes, if any, have been made by the Legislature since the last meeting, and any modifications of the rules of practice that shall have been made by the Supreme Court and in addition to such reports shall recommend such changes in the code and in the practice as shall seem to said committee to be proper and advantageous to the end of securing a proper reform of the laws.

Three weeks prior to the date of any annual meeting it shall file with the Secretary of this Association a statement of the matters upon which it will recommend Legislative action, such statement to embody all proposed amendments to existing laws and all new laws recommended by such committees, and that upon filing such statement the Secretary shall cause the same to be printed or typewritten and that he forthwith mail a copy thereof to each member of this Association.

2. Legal Education. The committee on legal education and admission to the Bar shall confer with and recommend to the faculty of the School of Law of the State University a suitable course of study to be pursued as a qualification for admission to the Bar, and shall also confer with and recommend to the Supreme Court a standard of education and qualification to be adhered to as a pre-requisite to admission to the Bar, and shall report in regard to such matters at each meeting of the Bar Association.

3. Legislative Committee. There shall be appointed, by the President, for a term of two years a Legislative Committee of fifteen members of which the President of this Association will be chairman. The duties of said committee shall be to properly formulate all propositions approved by the Association for the enactment of new laws or the alteration and amendment of existing statutes, to supervise and direct the due presentment and course in the Legislature of legislative bills formulated by it at the next succeeding session of said Legislature, and to use, in the name of the Association, every honorable means and influence to secure the passage and enactment into a law of the measures so introduced.

4. Committee on Sectional Meetings. The committee on Sectional Meetings shall make all arrangements for the sectional meetings to be held at the annual convention. Such arrangements shall include the subjects to be discussed at such sectional meetings, the leaders of such discussions, and the chairmen thereof. All of such arrangements shall be made and completed at least two weeks prior to the annual convention.

ARTICLE VI

Compensation: No officer other than the Secretary-Treasurer shall receive compensation for his services, but the expenses of the officers of the Association and the members of the Executive Committee who shall attend the regular or special meetings of the Association, or duly called meetings of the Executive Committee, shall be paid out of the funds received from the State Bar Board as provided by law. Such payment shall be made upon the detailed statement to be rendered by each officer, or committeeman showing the actual cash expenses of attendance at each meeting or such meetings.

ARTICLE VII

Additional Committees: In addition to the standing committees provided by Article 5 there shall be appointed by the President, with the concurrence of the Executive Committee, such other committees as shall be necessary from time to time to effectively accomplish the purpose for which this Association is organized and to carry out the work undertaken by the Association at its annual meeting.

ARTICLE VIII

The Executive Committee shall select twice as many names as there are nominees for the Bar Board to be submitted to the Supreme Court. Attorneys may make additional nominations by a petition signed by ten men, and filed with the Secretary. Reasonable notice shall be given in Bar Briefs of the time when such petition must be filed. The Secretary shall then prepare the ballot, which shall contain the statement "nominated by petition" after all names so nominated. The ballot shall be mailed to each member of the Association thirty days before the day when it must be returned, of which date notice shall be given by the Secretary when sending out the ballot. The President shall appoint a canvassing committee to canvass the ballots. Those receiving the highest number of votes, up to the number of nominees to be chosen, shall be presented to the Supreme Court as nominees of this Association for members of the Bar Board.

ARTICLE IX

Member of House of Delegates of American Bar Association: There shall be elected in each odd numbered year one delegate to serve as a member of the House of Delegates of the American Bar Association, who shall hold his office for a period of two (2) years after his election, or until his successor has been elected by the State Bar Association, and whose duties shall conform to those prescribed by the American Bar Association and State Bar Association, and it shall be his duty to attend the annual meetings of the American Bar Association until his successor is elected. The actual expenses of said delegate so elected in attending such meetings of the American Bar Association shall be paid by this Association.

ARTICLE X

Amendments: These by-laws may be amended at any time by a majority vote of the members present and voting at any regular meeting of the Association.
