PRESIDENT'S PAGE

My Dear Fellow Lawyers:

So far one fellow member of the Bar has volunteered to act as Chairman of the publicity committee which I referred to in my July letter in Bar Briefs. I am sure that he will make a very capable chairman and I would appreciate a response from anyone who would be willing to act on the committee.

The Executive Committee of the State Bar Association will meet at Fargo, North Dakota, on September 6, 1945, and I would appreciate receiving any suggestions from members of the Bar that could be discussed at this meeting. Several matters will have to be decided at this meeting because of the fact that we are not having our regular annual meeting and I would like to hear from various members of the Bar with suggestions and advise.

Now that the War is over, one of the important matters for the Bar to consider is the placement of lawyers who will be returning from the service. Another important thing will be the matter of arranging facilities for the completion of their work by law students who have been in service. So far, I have received some suggestions on this matter and would like to have more.

Sincerely,
ROY A. PLOYHAR
Acting President
