

1939

Attorneys License List

How does access to this work benefit you? Let us know!

Follow this and additional works at: <https://commons.und.edu/ndlr>

Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation

(1939) "Attorneys License List," North Dakota Law Review. Vol. 16: No. 7, Article 3.

Available at: <https://commons.und.edu/ndlr/vol16/iss7/3>

This Note is brought to you for free and open access by the School of Law at UND Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in North Dakota Law Review by an authorized editor of UND Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact und.common@library.und.edu.

(Continued from First Page)

them are within our control. Let us counsel together and work out the problem.

There is, too, an important social side to our meeting. Bring the folks. Special parts are in the plans for them, and they sure will be glad they came. Let us show our hosts, the Cass County Bar, and the City of Fargo that we appreciate their efforts to stage a fine meeting by our attendance. Some may think they cannot afford the trip, but YOU cannot afford not to. YOU need the help, the inspiration, and the contacts which this meeting will give. You will go back to work with your morale strengthened—your professional attitude and spirit braced. May we see you all at Fargo on August 28th and 29th.

YOUR SECRETARY.

MEMBERSHIP IN AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION

The appeal of our President, Clyde Duffy, to increase our membership in the American Bar Association within our state should be supported.

The American Bar Association has rendered, and is rendering a distinct and well recognized service for the lawyers of our country. The reorganization of this Association which recognizes, by representation, State Bar Associations in its House of Delegates now gives to the Association a representative capacity for the entire Bar of the country. This is particularly true for those states, now nearly in a majority, which possess an Integrated State Bar.

North Dakota enjoys the distinction of being the first Integrated Bar in the United States, by means of which every licensed lawyer becomes automatically a member of his State Bar Association with his dues paid.

Our Integrated State Bar Association possesses the potential power to make some arrangement with the American Bar Association in the payment of dues to it so that every member of our State Bar Association may become a member of the American Bar Association with his dues to the National Bar paid in whole or in part by our own State Bar Association.

This movement should be fostered and developed so that this can be accomplished as our State Bar Association has heretofore at its annual meeting resolved so to do.

HARRISON A. BRONSON.

ATTORNEYS LICENSE LIST

The 1940 list of licensed attorneys has been issued by the State Bar Board. Approximately seventy attorneys have not paid the fee for this year.

The Bar Board is asking the Courts of the state to refuse to recognize any attorney whose name does not appear in the published list, unless he is able to produce a license for the current year, hence delinquents should pay up and secure a license.

LAW SCHOOL NEWS

The University of North Dakota School of Law completed its forty-first school year on June 11, 1940. Sixteen graduating students were awarded their law degrees. They were as follows:

Edwin M. Barbie of Bismarck, Mary Lou DeMouilly of Flasher, Earl C. Erickson of Garrison, Larry R. Forest of Brinsmade, Alice T. Fox of Grand Forks, Lyle E. Huseby of Grand Forks, James Edward Leo of Grand Forks, Jim V. Miller of Minot, Harry O. Mowery of Napoleon, Dale M. Nordquist of Underwood, Donald E. Roney of Oakes, Alex W. Skoropat of Wilton, Francis C. Swanke of Kulm, William W. Swinland of Lakota, Roland B. Weiss of Sheldon and Leo A. Wikenheiser of Strasburg.

Like former graduates, the present graduates realize that practice is not the only field in which they may make use of their knowledge and skill. The records show that out of the 663 law graduates, some obtained positions as adjusters with insurance companies; others secured work with the state or federal government for which their legal training qualified them; some became teachers; few of them became law editors; and several entered business. However, a majority of them entered upon the practice of law. The members of the Class of 1940 will likewise prove worthy of their training by adapting themselves to changing conditions. If a member of the North Dakota Bar or any of the alumni in North Dakota or elsewhere are considering adding men to their firm or know of any opening, they can do a good turn to themselves and our new graduates by letting the School of Law know of these opportunities.

FRAZIER - LEMKE ACT

Farmer mortgagor, unable to effect composition with creditors, applied to be adjudged a bankrupt under 49 Stat. 242, subsection s, (1935); Chandler Act of 1935; 11 U.S.C.A. 203, subsection s; and be allowed to retain possession of his farm for three years. The District Court refused application on grounds that debtor would be unable to rehabilitate himself within three years and lacked requisite "good faith" as required by subsection i. On appeal to United States Supreme Court, Held, if debtor has complied with statutory proceedings, the district court must suspend for three years all proceedings to seize his property. Only test is that debtor must pay a reasonable rental semi-annually. The "good faith" of subsection i. refers to secret advantages to favored creditors or other improper or fraudulent conduct and does not refer to probability to financially rehabilitate himself. John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Co. v. Bartels 60 S. Ct. 21, 84 L.Ed. 154, 307 U.S. 617; (1939).