BAR MEETINGS

Members of the North Dakota Bar Association—On July 28th and 29th the North Dakota State Bar Association will meet in Jamestown, North Dakota. Mark up your calendar for those two days and come to Jamestown for this meeting. I know that the Jamestown Bar has made elaborate preparations for this meeting. They have a real worthwhile program that will be interesting to every lawyer in the state. And when you come bring your wife, and if you are not married bring your sweetheart. It will be a grand vacation for them. They will be entertained by the good ladies of Jamestown, so that their stay will be a great pleasure. I personally want to see every lawyer in the state present.

The American Bar Association meets in San Francisco this year on July 10th to 15th, inclusive. If you intend to go to the Fair this year in California go there during the time the American Bar Association is in session. The American Bar invites every lawyer to become a member and be present at its Annual Meeting. Become a member of that great organization and if you can afford it make the trip to San Francisco.

ALOYS WARTNER, Sr.,
President State Bar Association.
