MEMORIAMS

JUDGE J. A. MURPHY

Judge James A. Murphy, judge of Stutsman county with increased jurisdiction, passed away at his home in Jamestown, on January 14th, 1936, his death being caused by kidney trouble.

Judge Murphy was born at Clermont, Iowa, June 21, 1863, the son of Michael and Margaret Houlihan Murphy. Coming to Dakota Territory in August, 1882, he remained in Fargo for a year and then filed on a homestead near Carrington. While living in Carrington Judge Murphy served as postmaster and as clerk of Foster county. He was elected treasurer of Foster county in 1891, and in 1893, was appointed deputy state insurance commissioner.

He came to Jamestown and took up the practice of law and later added insurance and real estate to his business. He was justice of the peace in Jamestown for many years.

He married Mrs. Minnie B. Jones on December 19, 1895, at Sturgis, S. D. Their entire married life was spent in Jamestown.

In the fall of 1928, Judge Murphy was elected county judge and he held the office during three succeeding terms. Since April 7, 1917, he had been a member of the Jamestown park board and served as its secretary for many years. Always a lover of nature, his knowledge of all things growing made him a valuable member of the board. His greatest pride was in the flowers in the parks and it was his daily custom to drive through the parks to see how the flowers, trees and shrubs were progressing. It is no small measure due to his efforts that the first tennis courts were placed in the Jamestown parks.

He is survived by a daughter, Louise, and a son, Jerome, also a brother, Dennis, St. Paul, and a brother, Martin, Fargo. Mrs. Murphy passed away January 5, 1925.

He was a member of the Knights of Columbus, Jamestown Lodge No. 995, B. P. O. Elks, Ft. Seward Lodge No. 16 A. O. U. W., the Jamestown Chamber of Commerce and the Stutsman County Bar Association.

Funeral services were held at St. James Catholic church Thursday morning at 9:30. Interment was made at Calvary Cemetery in the family lot at Jamestown.

On January 15th, 1936, the Bar Association of Stutsman County passed and adopted the following Resolution:—

“WHEREAS Judge James A. Murphy, after a prolonged illness, passed away on January 14, 1936, in view of the influence of his character, life and work upon the Stutsman County Bar Association, the professional association of the County in which he has made his residence for a period of more than forty years, we, the members of the Bar Association in meeting assembled, have adopted and directed to be published the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That Judge Murphy was the Dean of the Stutsman County Bar Association. He came to the city of Jamestown in the year 1894 and has resided here continuously since that time. During that period he has been for many years a Justice of the Peace for Stutsman County and later judge of the County Court with increased jurisdiction for a period of more than 7 years. In all of the offices which he held, his service was most satisfactory, both to the Bar and to the people. He was at all times courteous and prompt in the discharge of duty, effectual in his service and prompt in his performance of all duties, official or personal, that devolved upon him. As a member of this Bar Association, he acted for a number of years most effectually as secretary, and finally withdrew from that office, only on account of declining health.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the influence, work and character of Judge Murphy in his strict, impartial and effectual discharge of his duties, whether as County official or Attorney at Law, has reflected honor upon our profession and as an appreciation of this fact, we express our sorrow and regret over his removal from our midst, and recommend his course in professional and official life to those who come after him as Members of the Bar of North Dakota and of our Association; that a copy hereof be sent to the President and Secretary of the Bar Association of North Dakota, and to the Chairman of its Committee on Memorials.

January 15, 1936.

S. E. ELLSWORTH,
CYTELLA PETERSON,
JOHN KNAUF."

JUDGE E. T. BURKE

Judge E. T. Burke died in Flossmoor, Illinois, on Christmas Day, December 25th, 1935. He was an attorney for the Department of Justice at Washington, D. C., and was visiting in Illinois when he was stricken.

Judge Burke was born near Minneapolis, Minn., November 5th, 1870, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Burke. His parents moved to North Dakota in 1871.

He attended the University of North Dakota for two years before transferring to the University of Minnesota, where he received his law degree.

He began the practice of law at Valley City and was elected state's attorney of Barnes County, serving from 1901 to 1905.

He was elected judge of the Fifth Judicial District. After serving two years of his second term he resigned to become elected to the Supreme Court in 1910.

Retiring from the bench in 1917, he continued to live in Bismarck until 1926, when he was appointed a special investigator for the Department of Justice and moved with his family to Washington.

On December 25th, 1900, Judge Burke was married at Valley City to Miss Florence Getchell. In addition to his widow he leaves three sons, Charles, of Chicago Heights, Ill., and Robert and John, of Washington, D. C.

Judge Burke was an amiable man, a good lawyer, and he made a very acceptable judge during the years he occupied the District and Supreme Court Benches.

Funeral services for Judge Burke, who was 65 years old at the time of his death, were held at Homewood, Illinois.

VAN R. BROWN

Van R. Brown, prominent Williams lawyer and former county attorney, passed away Tuesday, October 22, 1935, at a Williston hospital, of an illness he had suffered for several months.

Death came to the 75 year old attorney, who had been a hospital patient for about three weeks, following a stroke.

Mr. Brown had been a resident of North Dakota since before the turn of the century and made his home in Ray since 1903. He was born in Wheeling, West Virginia, on November 8, 1858. He spent his youth in that vicinity and in Pennsylvania, where he received his early education.

Deciding to follow the law profession he attended the University of Michigan law school in Ann Arbor, and was graduated from that institution with the class of 1885.

Following his graduation he went to Duluth, Minn., where he opened a law office and was later named City Attorney. Leaving Duluth he moved to Red Lake Falls, Minn., where he served as county attorney for one term before coming to Neche, N. D., with his parents, to open his practice in that community.

In 1891, he was married to Miss Maggie Mullins at Arvilla, N. D. In 1903, he came with his family to Ray, where he filed on a homestead and set up a law practice. Two years later he was named state's attorney, taking over his office in January, 1905. He served two terms, refusing a third term. He retired from public work in January, 1909.

During his terms as county attorney, Mr. Brown distinguished himself through a campaign in which he waged a bitter fight against Williston saloons. He was highly respected by the law profession. He was known for honest dealings and a shrewd court lawyer.

In his home community he was highly respected. He was a staunch follower of the Methodist church. He had been an instructor in the Sunday School for many years.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Claude Tewell of Seattle, and Miss Marian Mullins Brown of Washington, D. C. Both daughters were at the bedside when he passed away. A son, Dwight passed away in 1926. His wife died in 1933. Two brothers, Rev. Andrew C. Brown, of Winona Lake, Indiana; Huddington Brown, of Tuscon, Arizona, and a sister, Mrs. Sarah Rittenhouse Brown, of Los Angeles, also survive him.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist church with Rev. Chappel officiating. Interment was made in Sunset Rest cemetery.

JUDGE V. R. LOVELL

Verner R. Lovell, former mayor and one of Fargo's best known attorneys, died in a Fargo hospital early Wednesday, February 12th, 1936. He was stricken with a heart attack January 24th and had been at the hospital since.

Mr. Lovell, who attained a high place in the esteem of other members of his profession and the general public for his quiet and forceful character and his reputation for integrity, was born May 8th, 1863, in Hastings, Minn.

His parents, Royal and Rosella (Elliott) Lovell, were natives of New England. His father became a resident of St. Paul in 1875, engaging in the grain business.

Later the family moved to Iowa, and V. R. Lovell was educated in the schools of that state. He was graduated from the University of Iowa in 1886, coming to Fargo that year and beginning the study of law.

He moved to Moorhead, where he completed his legal studies, being admitted to the bar in 1888.

His first law office was opened in that year in Casselton, where he continued to practice in partnership with S. B. Bartlett until 1898, at which time he moved to Fargo and entered into partnership in the firm of Benton, Lovell and Bradley.

The firm later became Benton, Lovell and Holt, then Benton and Lovell, and still later the firm of Lovell and Horner was formed. In 1926 Mr. Lovell was appointed by Judge Andrew Miller to be referee in bankruptcy for this district, an office he held at the time of his death.

Always interested in civic affairs, Mr. Lovell served as mayor and city attorney of Casselton, while living there, and he served as mayor of Fargo in 1911 and 1912. It was during his term of office and largely due to his efforts, that the Fargo filtration plant was constructed, giving the city its exceptionally efficient municipal water supply system.

He was long active as one of the leading Democrats of the state.

In 1894, he married Miss Bertha F. Taylor, a native of Ohio, and three children were born to them. They are, Virginia Lois, Mrs. W. R. Haggart of Fargo; Doris, Mrs. Gordon S. Mayo, Kansas City; and Lieut. Royal Lovell, of the United States Navy. Mrs. Lovell is living at the family home in Fargo.

Mr. Lovell was a member of various Masonic Bodies, the Elks and Knights of Pythias.

At the funeral services Hon. George W. Thorpe of Fargo delivered an eulogy on the life of Judge Lovell, and many who heard this address pronounce it as one of the most beautiful and scholarly addresses ever heard within the state, and full of descriptive and interesting matters in the life and work of Judge Lovell, and replete with genuine sorrow and sympathy for the bereaved family.

HON. TRACY R. BANGS

Hon. Tracy R. Bangs, a resident of this city and a practicing lawyer for over 50 years, was stricken on Saturday, February 22nd, 1936, at his home in Grand Forks, N. D., and passed away almost immediately after the stroke came upon him. He was 73 years of age.

Mr. Bangs was admitted to the North Dakota Bar in 1886, four years after he had come to Grand Forks. Probably no other resident of the city ever was honored with as many political, civic, fraternal and professional offices as was Mr. Bangs in his half century of legal practice in Grand Forks.

At the time of his death he was president of the Grand Forks city park board and chairman of the city budget board of review. He had served as illustrious potentate of Ken Temple of the Mystic Shrine, past exalted ruler of the Elk lodge, president of the Rotary club, and supreme chancellor of the Knights of Pythias.

Nationally known as an orator, Mr. Bangs was in constant demand as a speaker at various functions. During the participation of the United States in the World War in 1917 and 1918 he devoted practically his entire time to war work, speaking in all parts of the United States and in many parts of Canada.

In his profession Mr. Bangs was one of the leading attorneys of North Dakota. He was Grand Forks attorney for the Northern Pacific railroad, the Northwestern Bell Telephone Co. and the Red River Power Co., and numerous other corporations.

A descendant of one of the earliest families in the United States, Mr. Bangs was president of the Edward Bangs Descendants.

Born April 29th, 1862, at LeSueur, Minnesota, the son of A. W. and Alena F. Bangs, he was a member of the ninth generation of the family in the United States, his ancestor, Edward Bangs, having come to Massachusetts in 1623.

He came to Grand Forks in 1881, and was employed as a clerk in the federal land office and studied law in the office of his father, being admitted to the bar in 1885. He married Miss Jessie L. Coughell of Saginaw, Mich., June 15th, 1887.

He was appointed city attorney in 1889, elected state's attorney of Grand Forks county in 1892, becoming United States district attorney in 1894 and serving to 1898.

His first practice of law was in the office of his father, one of the pioneer law firms in Grand Forks. He remained in the city when his father removed to Rapid City, S. D. He then formed a partnership with Charles J. Fisk, who afterwards became chief justice of the North Dakota Supreme Court. From 1890 to 1894, Mr. Bangs was associated with his brother, George A. Bangs, in a law firm. He then went into partnership with Charles M. Cooley, who became district judge. Miss Helen N. Hamilton and his son, Philip R. Bangs, then became associated with Mr. Bangs under the firm name of Bangs, Hamilton & Bangs. The firm was formed in 1915. For a time Arthur Netcher, now of Fessenden, was with the present firm.

At the organization of the Grand Forks Bar Association Mr. Bangs was elected president and served as such for a great many years. He was president of the North Dakota Bar Association in 1921, and served constantly on professional committees and public bodies.

In addition to Mrs. Bangs and his son, Philip, Mr. Bangs is survived by another son, Felix F. Bangs, of Beverly Hills, Cal.; one sister, Mrs. Joe Buck, of Monrovia, Cal.; and three brothers, George A., of Indianapolis, Eugene L. and Stein Bangs, of Rapid City, S. D.

Private funeral services for the family and intimate friends were held at 2 p. m. in the residence, and public services at 2:30 p. m. in the St. Paul's Episcopal church, Rev. Homer Harrington, officiating at both services. Lawyers and Judges from all over the state, and outside the state, attended the services.

Mr. Bangs was all that has heretofore been said concerning him, and in the judgment of the writer was much more than as above recited. He was one of the most affable men who ever lived in this community, and have the tact and courage to be and remain a friend, even to those who perhaps were not so friendly to him, and in this respect he was at times most gracious.

In addition to his numerous other gifts mentioned, he possessed a happy disposition, and was gifted with a faculty of discovering and dwelling upon the bright side of life, and while his almost ever present smile was pleasing, his laugh was contagious, and hearing it, others would laugh without knowing exactly what they were laughing about.

He was a most sociable fellow, and always enjoyed and entertained his friends in a pleasing manner.

Because of his many good attributes and especially because of his disposition to smile and laugh things off, the writer is reminded of a little verse which he learned years ago, and which we think may be aptly applied to Mr. Bangs. It runs like this:

"If you would be happy and loved,
In your long, long afterwhiles—
Be a miser with your troubles,
And a spendthrift with your smiles."

HARRY W. STEWART

Harry W. Stewart, who died at Langdon, N. D., Friday, April 24th, 1936, was born January 4th, 1904, at Edmore, N. D., the son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Stewart, prominent Nekoma couple, who moved from Edmore during their son's youth.

He was graduated from Nekoma high school in 1920, and then attended Jamestown college for two years before enrolling at the law school of the University of North Dakota, where his outstanding scholastic work earned for him membership in the Order of Coif, honorary legal fraternity. He was awarded his L. L. B. degree in June, 1925.

He was admitted to the bar during the summer of 1925 and that fall joined in the law practice of Grimson and Snowfield at Langdon. When G. Grimson was appointed to the district bench and J. M. Snowfield became state's attorney, Harry Stewart became associated with the latter in the law firm of Snowfield and Stewart and assumed the office of assistant state's attorney, which he held until the time of his passing.

He was a member of the Presbyterian church, the Masonic bodies and District and State Bar Associations. An active member of the Masonic bodies, he was worshipful master of Lebanon Lodge No. 34, A. F. & A. M., and an officer in the Scottish Rite bodies at the time of his death. He was chairman of the committee which a year ago reorganized the affairs of Lebanon cemetery.

Mr. Stewart was married at Milton, June 26th, 1929, to Winifred Ethel Sunderland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sunderland, well known Wilton people. The widow and one son, John Harry, survive, with his parents and two sisters, May, of Grand Forks, and Dorothy, a student at Mayville State Teachers college. His grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Orpe, of Nekoma, also survives.

Funeral services were held Sunday, and a large number of people from all parts of Cavalier county gathered, testifying to the prominence and popularity of the young attorney, who passed away so untimely after a month's illness, with pneumonia. Services were held at the auditorium in a setting of numerous floral tributes. Rev. J. H. K. Moffett, Presbyterian pastor from Milton,

ANTHONY T. FABER

Anthony T. Faber was born at Chaska, Minnesota, on March 1, 1871. He received his early education in the schools of that place. Was later graduated from the law department of the University of Michigan and was admitted to the Supreme Court of the State of Minnesota on October 5, 1892.

He practiced at St. Paul and St. Cloud, Minnesota, until his removal to North Dakota. Was admitted to the Bar of this state on October 16, 1906, locating at Glen Ullin.

Mr. Faber was married June 12, 1907, at Madison, Wisconsin, to Miss Alice Chamberlain.

He was elected state's attorney of Morton county and served a part of one term, resigning before the expiration of his term. Besides his practice at Glen Ullin, Mr. Faber practiced law at Mandan, Fargo and Bismarck, his residence being at the latter point at the time of his passing. He suffered a paralytic stroke some two or three years prior to his death and passed away at Bismarck as a result of the same, on March 21st, 1936.

Mr. Faber was a likable, affable gentleman, and the soul of generosity. He was possessed of much ability, particularly as a trial lawyer, and his passing is a distinct loss to the legal profession of the state, and especially on the Missouri Slope.

Mr. Faber leaves surviving, his wife and two sons, Anthony T. Faber, Jr., and Paul Faber. Also surviving are three brothers, Fred, Los Angeles, Cal., and Florian, St. Paul, Minn., and Dr. Arthur Faber, New Rockford, as well as four sisters, Mrs. John Donlon, Dubuque, Iowa, Mrs. Joseph Schutz and Miss Ida Faber, Chaska, Minn., and Mrs. J. Smith, Los Angeles, Cal.

BURDETTE DAVID TOWNSEND

Word comes to us of the death of Burdette David Townsend at his home in Los Angeles, California, and because Mr. Townsend, who was more familiarly known throughout this part of the country as "Bert", was a practicing lawyer in this state for several years — most of the time at Devils Lake — we believe it our duty to give him recognition in this manner, and we are pleased to do so, because he and the writer were very intimate friends for many years, not only when he was in St. Paul, but after engaging in the practice of law in this state, where he became known and recognized as one of the ablest trial lawyers anywhere in this part of the country, and not only this, but he was a wholesome fellow — kindly dispositioned toward all — and his friends throughout Minnesota and North Dakota, especially, were legion, and we know that many of them who knew him perhaps as intimately as the writer, will join in this expression of recognition of him, not only as a great lawyer, but as a warm friend.

While here he was Assistant United States District Attorney for North Dakota, and later assistant to United States Attorneys General Bonaparte, Wickersham and McReynolds.

Mr. Townsend was born July 31st, 1871, at Jordan, New York. He came to this part of the country and first settled in St. Paul, where he was connected with the Great Northern Railway Company's general law office, under his uncle, M. D. Grover, who was then general counsel for that railway company. Later he settled in North Dakota and was appointed Assistant U. S. District Attorney under P. H. Rourke and later went into the office of the United States Attorney General at Washington. While in this state Mr. Townsend acted as attorney in many very important cases and was one of the most successful advocates ever known in this state. Among some of the noted legal battles which he helped to prosecute for the Federal Government were those known as "The Packing House" cases, the famous "Oregon Land Grant" cases, and "Alaska Coal Land" cases.

On resignation from government service he moved to Denver and entered the oil business in Wyoming, and Texas, and reliable information has it that not only in a legal sense, but financially, he was very successful.

Later he became associated with Judge Francis J. Heney in the practice of law in San Francisco.

Two years ago he moved to Los Angeles and had since been in failing health. Death was due to a heart affliction.

Mrs. Townsend and daughter, Martha Lou Townsend, are living at the family home in Los Angeles.

The writer feels very certain that this recognition of "Bert" Townsend will be approved by the Bar of this state, even though he has not been a resident here for some years past.

IVAN H. BREAW

Death from leukemia came to Ivan H. Breaw, 40 year old Minot attorney, at a Minot hospital, on July 8th, where he had been a patient for a week

Mr. Breaw was born in Ransom county, near Sheldon, in 1896. After attending high school at Sheldon, he studied law at the University of North Dakota, and was admitted to the bar in 1922.

For a few years he was associated with Allan Wood of Fargo. Upon coming to Minot he was associated with George McGee until 1931.

Surviving him in Minot are his wife and two infant children. His mother, Mrs. Nancy Breaw, formerly of Sheldon, lives with his sister, Mrs. A. Yeager, Felton, Minn. Other survivors are three brothers, Rev. Roy Breaw, of Fullerton, Nebraska; Alfred Breaw, of Forbes, N. D., and a sister, Mrs. Lydia Daustrom of Enderlin, North Dakota. He was a good lawyer and a man of sterling personal worth.
