you have for me, to take care that Attilius is not only paid the capital but all the long arrears of interest too." (To Priscus-LXI)

Becoming a famous advocate he became wealthy and received many honors from the electorate and from his sovereign. (Appointed Consul by Trajan 100 A. D.; Governor of Bithynia, etc.)

Pliny arranged, edited and published his own letters. They include everything from the description of a dinner party to ghost stories; legal opinions to descriptions of the spread of the new Christian religion; pictures of habits and manners to a statement of the philosophy of life of a great lawyer in a great age.

150TH ANNIVERSARY OF U. S. CONSTITUTION

Recently our Executive Committee adopted a resolution endorsing the work of the United States Constitution Sesquicentennial Commission. This commission is perfecting plans for the 150th Anniversary Celebration of the foundation of the Constitution of the United States, which celebration will begin September 17th, 1937, and continue to April 30th, 1938.

Our association, through its Committee on Americanization and Citizenship, of which the Hon. John Knauf is the able chairman, is actively cooperating with this Commission and in fact has been forehanded in the matter having already adopted a plan of co-ordinating different agencies in our state for such celebration.

Our Executive Committee has nominated the following members of the association for the appointment to be made in January, 1937, to the State Bar Board to fill the vacancy caused by the expiration of the term of the Hon. C. J. Murphy of Grand Forks.

C. J. Murphy, Grand Forks; F. J. Traynor, Devils Lake; E. E. Conmy, Fargo; R. H. Bosard, Minot; H. C. Young, Fargo; and I. B. Nelson, Rugby.

The three receiving the highest number of votes will be cer-
