

1925

Do You Know the Missing Words

North Dakota Law Review

Follow this and additional works at: <https://commons.und.edu/ndlr>

Recommended Citation

North Dakota Law Review (1925) "Do You Know the Missing Words," North Dakota Law Review. Vol. 2 : No. 4 , Article 10.

Available at: <https://commons.und.edu/ndlr/vol2/iss4/10>

This Note is brought to you for free and open access by the School of Law at UND Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in North Dakota Law Review by an authorized editor of UND Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact und.common@library.und.edu.

munity. Young and old alike looked upon him as their friend and counselor. The ways of Providence are best, but poor human minds find it hard to understand why one who was such a power for good in life should have to pass on at such a comparatively early age.

DO YOU KNOW THE MISSING WORDS?

I, _____, a Voter, live at No. _____ on _____ Street, in the City of _____, in the County of _____, in the _____ Senatorial District and the _____ Congressional District of North Dakota. North Dakota has _____ Counties.

I live in the _____ precinct, and the Republican Precinct Committeeman is _____, and the Democratic Precinct Committeeman is _____.

Members of the Legislature from my District are:

Representatives: _____

and Senators: _____

There are _____ Representatives and _____ Senators in our Legislature.

This State has _____ Congressional Districts, and the members of Congress from each District are:

_____ District, _____

_____ District, _____

_____ District, _____

_____ District, _____

The State has _____ Senatorial Districts, and the U. S. Senators are: _____

I should vote at the City Election on _____, at the State Primaries on _____, and at the General Election on _____. There will be (a) (no) school election this year.