

1925

Re-Statement of the Law/Did You Vote?

North Dakota Law Review

Follow this and additional works at: <https://commons.und.edu/ndlr>

How does access to this work benefit you? Let us know!

Recommended Citation

North Dakota Law Review (1925) "Re-Statement of the Law/Did You Vote?," North Dakota Law Review. Vol. 2: No. 11, Article 8.

Available at: <https://commons.und.edu/ndlr/vol2/iss11/8>

This Note is brought to you for free and open access by the School of Law at UND Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in North Dakota Law Review by an authorized editor of UND Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact und.common@library.und.edu.

The first meeting of this committee has been called by President McIntyre for the 22nd of October, and will be held at Grand Forks. At this session the year's work will be outlined, budget prepared, committees appointed, printing contracts awarded, and other routine business transacted.

RE-STATEMENTS OF THE LAW

The following copies of the various re-statements of the law as sent out by the American Law Institute are in the hands of the Secretary for distribution at fifty cents each:

- 16 copies Agency No. 1
- 20 copies Torts No. 1
- 16 copies Torts No. 2
- 13 copies Contracts No. 1
- 14 copies Contracts No. 2
- 18 copies Conflicts of Laws No. 1
- 16 copies Conflicts of Laws No. 2.

Orders will be filled at these prices until this supply is exhausted. Make checks payable to State Bar Association.

DID YOU VOTE?

That is a pertinent question, certainly. Having observed the results obtained through minority participation in elections, wept bitter tears over the results, and denounced the "slackers" whose votes would have given you a chance to crow, you will please take note that October 30th is the date on which the balloting for recommendations to membership on the Bar Board closes. Until amendment of the Association's Constitution and By-Laws, which can not be accomplished until the meeting next year, the present method of making the selection must be followed. Vote as you please, but vote!

A MODEST REQUEST

We just recently received from Mr. Wm. H. Pauling Emrich, "Avocat Americain" of Paris, speaking for "Ministere de la Justice, office de Legislation Etrangere et de droit International", having its home in the "Batiment of the Ministere at 13 Place Vendome, Paris", a request for the following contribution by the State Bar Association of North Dakota:

1. Copy of the annotated statutes of the State;
2. Copy of the Acts of Incorporation and Municipal Ordinances of the chief cities of the State;